WHAT DO YOU ENJOY AT HOLLOW TREES?

I like to help customers choose something when they don't know what to get, from an intimate meal for 2 to a more extravagant dinner party.

Meet James, one of our Butchery Leaders, and firm favourite with our customers.

INTRODUCE YOURSELF...

I'm James, and I've been at Hollow Trees for almost 9 years.

TELL US ABOUT YOUR TOUGHEST MOMENTS IN THE BUTCHERY

One of the toughest moments for me, was the first Christmas when myself and Anthony ran the Butchery together as joint leaders, making sure we could give people the best Christmas meat, and making 3500 + pigs in blankets!

Also, the dreaded Covid, which was like nothing i've ever seen before, and hopefully will not see again!

WHAT BUTCHERY PRODUCT WOULD YOU RECOMMEND AT THE MOMENT?

For a traditional cut, I would recommend our Red Poll Dry Aged Rump Steak, which has been in our special dry ager fridge for 3-4 weeks.

For something a little less traditional, I would recommend our Curried Goat and Mango Chutney Puff Pastry parcels. (very scrummy!)

I feel grateful for every customer who supports us, and look forward to meeting many more.

I think we are so successful are because we are determined to give our customers 'service with a smile'. We are quite unique in that we produce so much of our own meat here on the Farm! We can offer something different to the traditional butchers with our creative meal solutions.
